How your donation matters

- $5,000 Provides a trained attorney to secure permanent legal resident status for an abused immigrant woman, a process that typically takes at least 2 years
- $2,500 Recruits and trains 25 pro bono attorneys to represent clients in court on matrimonial, family and immigration law matters
- $1,000 Underwrites one monthly walk-in clinic where Her Justice staff counsel 30–40 women on their legal rights and begin the process of finding volunteer lawyers to represent them
- $500 Gives 10 hours of vital interpretation services to non-English-speaking clients so they can communicate clearly with their Her Justice attorneys about their needs and options
- $250 Supports telephone screening and intake services for 20 women desperate to find a free lawyer
- $100 Pays for a process server for 2 clients to deliver an order of protection against their batterers, allowing each woman to begin the process of leaving a dangerous relationship and starting a new life
